Sample of cases for analysis within the project

This annex briefly outlines a tentative sample of cases for the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) proposal "African Regional Organisations as Mediators in Peace Negotiations (AFROM)". It covers mediation attempts by African ROs in Africa for the years 1993-2019. The sample draws on data obtained from three sources: the Uppsala Conflict Data Program (UCDP) Managing Intrastate Conflict (MIC) Dataset which contains all third party interventions in conflict dyads in Africa between 1993 and 2007 (Melander/ von Uexkull 2011), the UCDP Peace Agreement Dataset that covers peace agreements signed between at least two opposing primary warring parties in an armed conflict and their type of settlement 1975-2018 (Pettersson et al. 2019), and the UCDP Dyadic Dataset that has been used for assessing the dyads as specified by the UCDP (Pettersson et al. 2019). Since the datasets do not provide for the whole period of analysis (1993-2019), the sample additionally draws on collected information such as secondary literature, press reports and official documents collected for the years 2008-2019. Overall, this tentative sample refers to 37 cases of RO mediation in Africa. In the proposal, we define mediation as a "process of conflict management, related to but distinct from the parties' own efforts, whereby the disputing parties [...] seek the assistance, or accept an offer of help from an individual, group, state or organization to change, affect or influence their perceptions or behaviour, without resorting to physical force, or invoking the authority of the law" (Bercovitch et al.1991: 8). In cases where there have been several mediation attempts in order to settle a specific conflict over a period such as in the South Sudan (2013-2017), we have summarised these to one bigger case, arguing that one mediation attempt might cover several rounds of talks between the conflict parties.

This sample might further increase in the first phase of the proposed project when we scrutinise additional (and potentially more recently published versions of) the datasets for additional cases of African RO mediation. It constitutes the basis for the QCA-analysis in the first phase of the project.

The case selection for the within-case analysis in the second phase of the proposed project will be informed both by QCA results as well as theory-based and research-practical considerations. Albeit the final decision on case selection for the within-case analysis will be taken after the implementation of QCA, the tentative case selection as outlined in the proposal is based on this sample, too.
